FITTR SUMMARIZED

Fittr is a workout generator that takes in users equipment access, time commitment, and goals for working out. After taking in this info, Fittr uses a GPU supercomputing cluster to create a great individualized workout plan.

With the extensive database of exercises and exercise variants, Fittr has millions of workout possibilities allowing for a unique workout for every member. Fittr tracks members as they go and creates graphs to show improvement and then rewards members with trophies to show accomplishment.

THE FITTR TEAM

SPENDING HOURS MAKING A PLAN IS NOT THE WAY TO GO

It takes hours to make a great workout plan and more often than not, that plan is not the best for that individual. Fittr takes into account equipment access, time commitment, and goals to give the perfect plan.

THE PROBLEM

PERSONAL TRAINERS ARE EXPENSIVE!

The prices per hour vary from $25 all the way to $75 an hour. When you figure that you should be working out at least 3 days a week and that there is generally 4 weeks in a month, the prices for a trainer come out to over $300/month.
